Student comments when asked:

What is something you learned from the RSVP program?

What I learned is:

“Drugs and alcohol are some nasty things.”

“I learned to stay away from bad things and not have sex until I’m married.”

“Abstinence is worth it!”

“ I LEARNED THAT ABSTINENCE IS 100% EFFECTIVE.”

Teacher comments concerning the Healthy Choices for Healthy Teens classes:

“Thank you for doing this; it is a pleasure to have you in our school year!”

“The most important thing that they learn from the program is that they have choices to make.”

“The drugs and alcohol lesson is very informative!”

“It’s good to have someone come in and talk to the kids about real issues.”

Timothy Vansickle, Wayne County Judge & Peers to Peers Educator

Dan Lutz, Wayne County Prosecuting Attorney & Peers to Peers Educator

Josh Hunt, Medway Agent & Peers to Peers Educator

Karen Logsdon
Peers to Peers Educator

Chad Laubethal
County Veterans Service Officer & Peers to Peers Educator

By the end of May 2018, this staff will have presented abstinence from drugs, alcohol, and sex, in nearly every school district in Wayne and Holmes counties. Approximately 2500 students will have been reached with this message which is geared for middle and high school classes.
